ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS

COMMUTERS NOTING PROGRESS ON RAILWAY IMPROVEMENT.

Electric Company's Compliance With Recent Order to Be Considered-General News.

Special Correspondence of The Evening Star. ALEXANDRIA, Va., April 15, 1905.

The improvements in rolling stock and general service which are being made on the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon electric road will be fully considered at the annual meeting of the Alexandria and Washington Commuters' Association, which will be held early in May. The meeting was to have taken place in March, but it was postponed in order to give time for securing accurate information as to measures adopted by the company to comply with the orders of the state corporation commission, issued after the session in this city February 2. It is understood that a comprehensive report of the several means which are being used by the company to improve the service will be made at the commuters' meeting. In particular the work already accomplished will be reported and discussed. The action of the association in the matter will, of course, be based upon the data furnished. It is understood that should it appear from the report that the company has signally failed in any particular to comply with the rulings of the commission steps will be taken to make representations to the state board.

Probably the most important item to be considered will be that of the installation of new motor equipments on the cars, and the purchase and operation of new motor cars. The first of the four orders entered by the commission provided that the company shall have in operation before May 1, 1905, four new complete motor cars sufficient to seat fifty-two passengers each, equipped with four modern motors of not less than fifty horsepower, with double flooring, and that two new fifty-horsepower motors be put in on some of the cars then in service before the date mentioned. The order also required two additional new motor cars before August 1, 1905, but it is those provisions hinging upon the earlier date that will be discussed at the meeting of the commuters.

One Car Equipped.

The company has fully equipped and is now operating one old motor car in accordance with the order. This car, No. 17, was put on the line a few days ago, and looked so bright and clean that many passengers thought it was new. It is provided with a high frame and double floor, thereby protecting against the fires which have such frequent occurrences, breaking out in the bottoms of the cars. The four new motors received have not yet made their appearance on the line.

The association, it is understood, is not so much concerned at present with the third order of the commission, that requir-ing the double tracking of the line between here and the bridge over the Potomac, as its fulfilment is contingent upon a more distant date, August 1, 1905. Notwithstanding this, the gratifying progress being made with the double tracking will doubtless be reported and favorably commented upon.

General Matters.

The business of the local post office has grown so in the past few years that the necessity for additions to the local force Post Office Department. The work has been so heavy that some of the collections and distributions heretofore regularly made have had to be abandoned and the employes have been severely pushed to handle the big volume of mail. It is hoped by the people ployes will be speedily granted. In the corporation court yesterday, Judge

READY FOR SERVICE.

New Tracks of Mt. Vernon Railway to

Be Used Tonight. The Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon railway will this evening begin the use of its new tracks on C and D streets northwest, and pasengers will be carried to and from the station recently fitted up near 12th and D streets, on Pennsylvania avenue northwest. The passengers from Alexandria this morning were notified on the trains that at 8:30 o'clock this evening the use of the old station at 131/2 street and Pennsylvania avenue would be abandoned. The railway company has had a force of hands at work all day installing the furniture and fitting up the ticket office so as to have everything in readiness for the transfer by the appointed time. The construction of the tracks to and from the new station has been hurried in order to have the change today, as Superintendent Colvin had said would be done, and was a quick piece of railway construction. The trains will run along 14th street from the Long bridge to B street, along B to 131/2 and up 131/2 to D street on the old tracks. At this corner the cars will run along D street to 12th street to the point where the station is located. Leaving the city the trains will run down 12th by the city postoffice to C and along C to 14th, and then over the tracks now in use to the Long bridge. The new tracks give the railway company a loop on which trains can be backed and turned should it be necessary to

The new station has but one waiting room, the space in the building not allow-ing separate rooms for the sexes, as was the plan at the 131/2 street station, but it is quite roomy, and has entrances both on the avenue and D street. The walls and cell-ings are of ornamental sheet metal work and are beautifully colored, large medal-lions, representing the mythological god-esses, adorn the walls. The floor is of til-ing, and the colors of the room all harmon-

Settees will be placed around the sides of the new room, and the waiting passen-gers will be made as comfortable as pos-sible. Large tollet rooms are also provided in the new station.

The business offices of the company are located on the second floor of the new building, Superintendent Colvin has his of-fice overlooking 1th street and Pennsylvania avenue, an dthe office of the train dis patchers and ticket receivers are on the 12th and D streets side of the building. 12th and D streets side of the building.

The employes of the company have a private room with boxes for their private belongings and the treasurer, auditor and other officers of the company are provided with comfortable quarters. The offices have been handsomely decorated and will be comfortably fitted out for the proper conduct of the business of the road. The transfer of the books, papers and other impedimenta from the old office at 13½ street will be made at the close of business today.

The double tracking of the portion of the day.

The double tracking of the portion of the road (about 500 feet) under the steam railway tracks across the Potomac park was completed last night and this morning trains will be running over the new rails. A single track still runs across the temporary bridge built over the tidal basin, and it is understood no change will be made in it until the new Highway bridge is completed, when a double track bridge will be constructed over the basin and double tracks across the Potomac Park to the new District bridge.

Oklahoma; at its conclusion a start was made to his hunting camp in Colorado. Commissioner of Pensions Warner threatened to suspend ten members of the board of pensions review for allowing alleged illegal pensions to be granted. Colonel Colton, who will be in charge of the Dominican customs, was instructed by Secretary Taft that he was to act as the agent of the Santo Domingo government and not as a representative of the United States. The executive committee of the Panama canal commission decided to employ Japanese and Indian labor in the construction of the canal. The United States Supreme Court decided that the Constitution extends to Alaska. The arrangements for the transfer of the remains of Ambassador Azpiroz to the U. S. S. Columbia, at Annapolis, were announced. Edwin Anderson Alderman was installed as the first president of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, Va., with appropriate ceremonies. The prudential committee of the foreign mission board of the Congregational Church de-cided to hold on to Mr. Rockefeller's gift of $100,000. Four men were indicted by the federal grand jury at Chicago in connection with the beef trust investigation for tampering with a witness. Capt. George W. Kirkman, 25th Infantry, was found guilty by a court-martial and sentenced to dis-missal from the army. Eight American sailors, wrecked off the coast of Formosa, were reported murdered by natives. J. Morgan Smith and wife, brother-in-law and sister, respectively, of "Nan" Patterson, accused of murdering Caesar Young in New York, arrived in New York and were arraigned on a charge of conspiracy, with Mrs. Patterson, to obtain money from Young; the charge was later quashed; Pawnbroker Stern failed to identify Smith as the man to whom he sold the pistol with which Young was killed.

Foreign Affairs.

The fleet of Admiral Rojestvensky, consisting of forty-seven vessels, was reported from Paris to be in the neighborhood of the Tizar banks, 800 miles southwest of Formosa. The bold way in which the Russian admiral made no attempt at conceal-ment was taken to mean that he courted an attack by Togo, who was reported to have selected Makung harbor, on the Pesca-dores Islands, between Formosa and the Chinese mainland, as his naval base; a steamer, which sighted the Russian fleet, reported its decks cleared for action; numerous sharp engagements were reported between the advance forces of the two armies in Manchuria, and the Russians were said to be materially strengthening the defenses of Vladivostok, where 100,000 men are garrisoned; advices from Harbin stated that siege guns were being moved against Kirin by the Japanese; dispatches from many points in Russia told of re-newed disturbances among the peasant and urban population, a great rising being fear-ed for May day; cholera broke out at Baku. The British budget for the last fiscal year showed a surplus of $15,000,000; American Ambassador Choate was elected by the Brit-ish lawyers to the position of master of the bench of the Middle Temple, an honor rare-ly conferred upon an outsider; Joseph Chamberlain, in a speech, strongly urged an Anglo-Japanese alliance as a sure conservator of peace. A dispatch from Paris announced the finding in the St. Louis cemetery there of the body of John Paul Jones; the French chamber of deputies, by large majority, passed the first article of the bill providing for complete separation of church and state, and discussed counter proposals affecting the same measure; Capt Volpert of the French army was arrested suspected of complicity in an alleged milltary plot. Four hundred persons were killed or injured by the collapse of a new water reservoir in course of construction at Madrid. Late estimates of the fatalities during has been called to the attention of the the earthquakes in India put the total at more than 13,000.
